"Keepin' The Young Paper Safe Since Conception."

Date: 11/27/25
Collaborators: quaeterz, clemmie_bun
Status: Public, Approved for Release
Type: Dossier

WARNING! Topics of R34, Underage, Self-Harm, Manipulation, Bodily Waste, Hypocrisy, .

Some imagery within the document is blurry on mobile.

Subject Overview

D1_The_Shark_909, AKA, G01D3N_ G10W (D1 for the convenience of this document), is a manipulative, drama-seeking self-denialist who seems to always find an argumentative point within the Fundamental Paper Education community. He is well-known for engaging in drama related, self-incited discourse, half of the time being considerably trivial and unproductive matters worth calling-out. Overall, he's a drama-prone individual who's doggedly eager to prove people wrong whenever possible.

D1 is mainly active on X, using it to mainly call out and argue along with the occasional art post. He uses Reddit just as much as X, but does little on the platform due to having been banned from r/FundamentalPaperEdu, the most popular FPE subreddit. And finally, he also has activity on Instagram, only posting buses and trains on it and of course, his art.

In conclusion, D1 is a problematic individual within the FPE exposing scene who hardly delivers on his statements. He partakes in fruitless arguments with little substantial backbone, typically going silent when disproven.

Instance Overview

Instance #1 concerns his NSFW creations.

Instances #2 explains the context of the argument with guest collaborator “clemmie_bun” and debunks his so-called “evidence”.

Instances #3 presents examples of him guilt tripping.

Instances #4 presents his manipulative behavior and hypocrisy

Instances #5 is an argument displaying his lack of evidence and the total extent of his manipulative behavior.

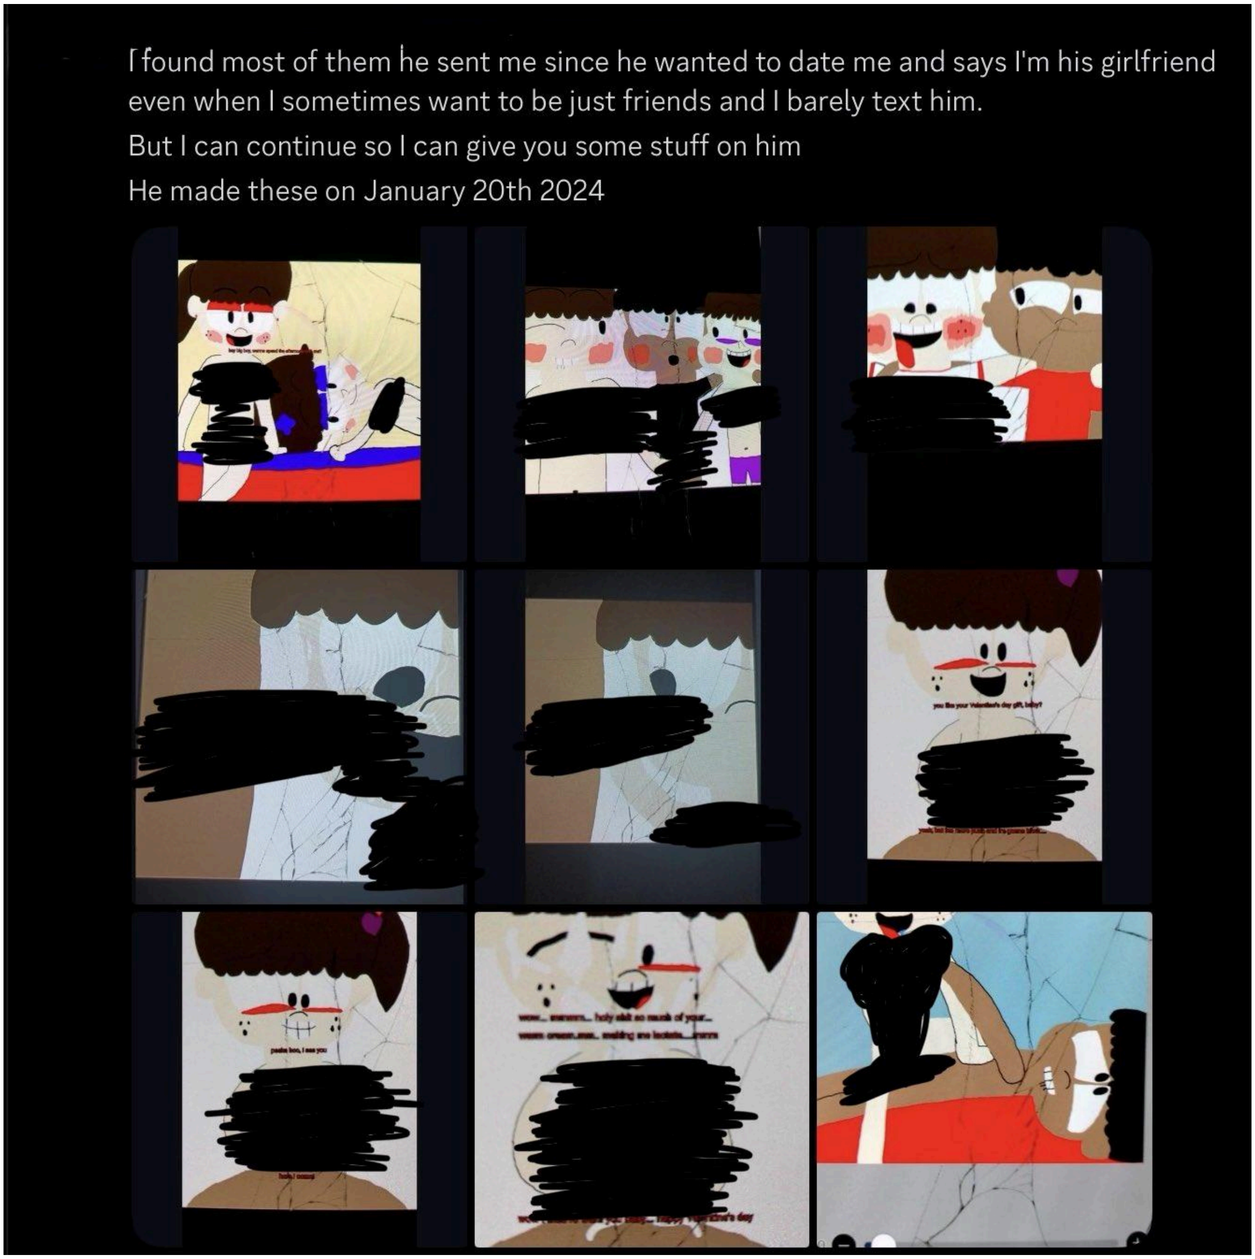
D1 THE SHARK 909

Instance #1



I found most of them he sent me since he wanted to date me and says I'm his girlfriend even when I sometimes want to be just friends and I barely text him.

But I can continue so I can give you some stuff on him

He made these on January 20th 2024

The drawings you see D1's girlfriend, Ebelle, sent to guest collaborator "clemmie_bun" depict two characters from the 2016 Nickelodeon show, "The Loud House", Luna Loud and Lynn Loud Jr., having intercourse with D1's Loud House related Original Character (refer to the below sub-instance).

Nothing too major but I plan to upgrade soon, but it's difficult for right now

5:33 PM · Sep 23, 2024 · 53 Views

The characters shown above are minors, the youngest being 15 (Lynn Loud Jr.) and the oldest 16 (Luna Loud). D1 was a grown adult at the time making art like this. Even if these date back to 2023 at least, D1 still should've never been drawing things like this, especially considering his current stance on such works today. D1 supposedly drew these pieces to gift to his ex-girlfriend.

As you can see above, the similarities between his art style from then and now have improved somewhat. You can clearly see that the character from the upper left example is the one depicted in the lewd drawings– and by extension– his Loud House OC from back then.

The screenshots shown are from June 3rd, the day D1 openly told guest collaborator "clemmie_bun" as a joke that he'd want her to urinate in his mouth for fun and later tried to detest it being a "joke". The reason as to why you do not see the message is because he deleted it to hide the evidence, but it is clear that such a message was sent–provided guest collaborator "clemmie_bun"'s reaction–such a message was sent especially with the preceding evidence.

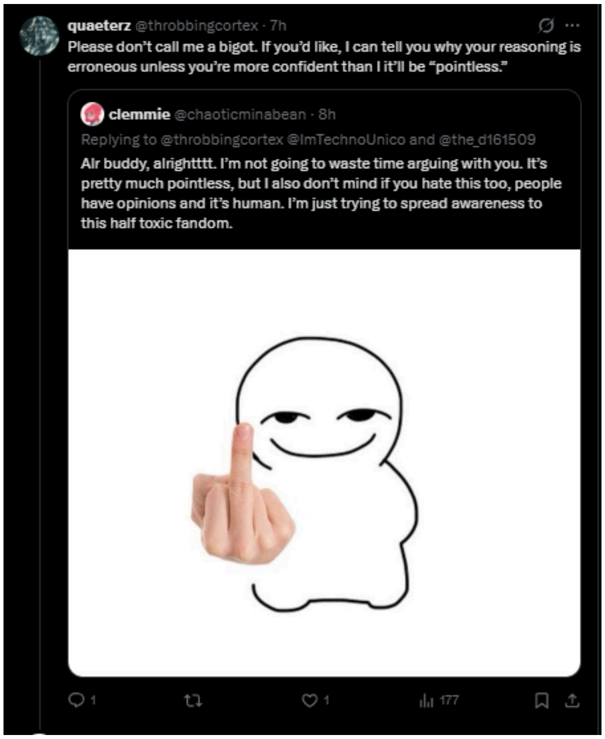
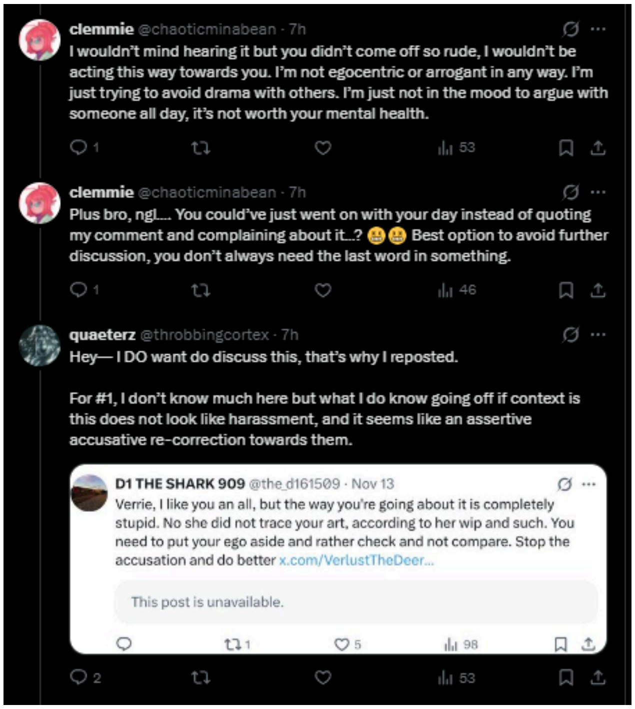
Dawg are you seriously moved by these examples and reasoning

Here, guest collaborator "clemmie_bun" creates an X dossier thread regarding D1THESHARK909, where C.I.D. Director "quaetorz" questions the legitimacy of the information presented (will not be presented due to documentational irrelevance).



quaeterz @throbbingcortex · 7h
Please don't call me a bigot. If you'd like, I can tell you why your reasoning is erroneous unless you're more confident than I it'll be "pointless."

clemmie @chaoticminabean · 8h
Replying to @throbbingcortex @ImTechnoUnico and @the_d161509
Alr buddy, alrighttttt. I'm not going to waste time arguing with you. It's pretty much pointless, but I also don't mind if you hate this too, people have opinions and it's human. I'm just trying to spread awareness to this half toxic fandom.



clemmie @chaoticminabean · 7h
I wouldn't mind hearing it but you didn't come off so rude, I wouldn't be acting this way towards you. I'm not egocentric or arrogant in any way. I'm just trying to avoid drama with others. I'm just not in the mood to argue with someone all day, it's not worth your mental health.

clemmie @chaoticminabean · 7h
Plus bro, ngl.... You could've just went on with your day instead of quoting my comment and complaining about it...? 😬😬 Best option to avoid further discussion, you don't always need the last word in something.

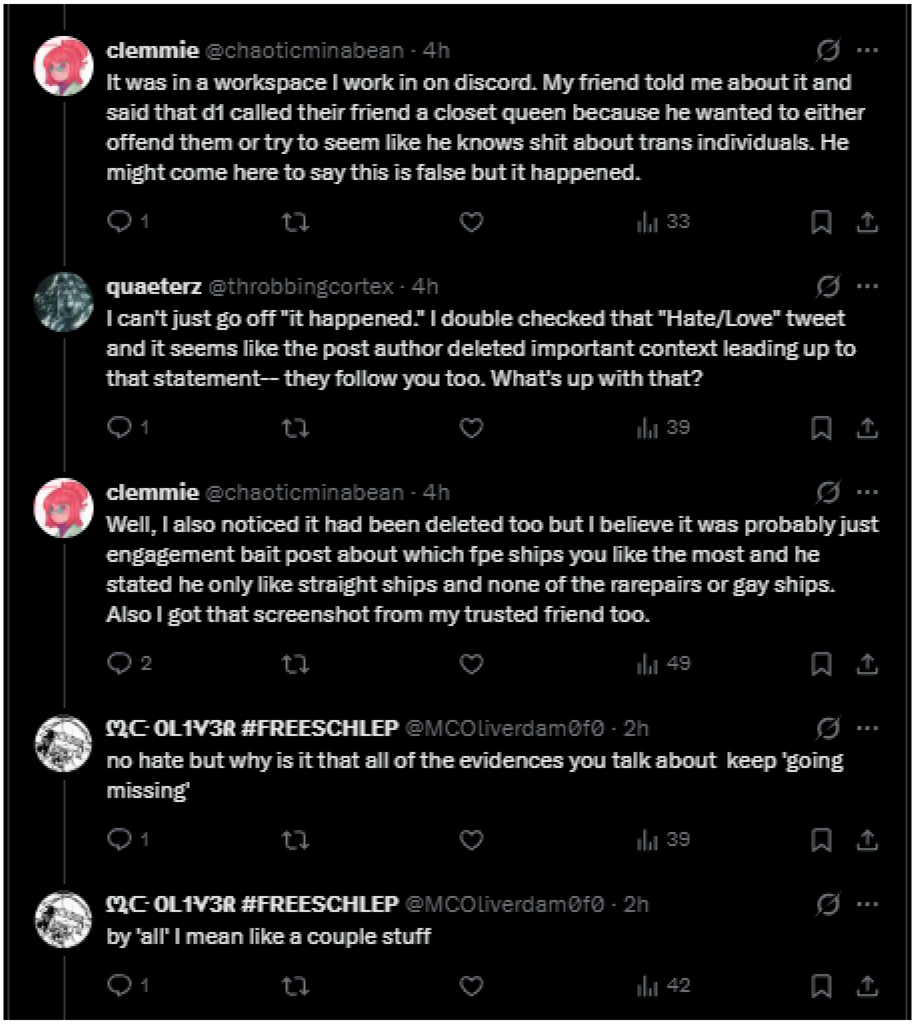
quaeterz @throbbingcortex · 7h
Hey— I DO want do discuss this, that's why I reposted.

For #1, I don't know much here but what I do know going off if context is this does not look like harassment, and it seems like an assertive accusative re-correction towards them.

D1 THE SHARK 909 @the_d161509 · Nov 13
Verrie, I like you an all, but the way you're going about it is completely stupid. No she did not trace your art, according to her wip and such. You need to put your ego aside and rather check and not compare. Stop the accusation and do better x.com/VerlustTheDeer...

This post is unavailable.

Where the question then evolves into a full-blown, multi-thread dissection argument via repost.



clemmie @chaoticminabean · 4h
It was in a workspace I work in on discord. My friend told me about it and said that d1 called their friend a closet queen because he wanted to either offend them or try to seem like he knows shit about trans individuals. He might come here to say this is false but it happened.

quaeterz @throbbingcortex · 4h
I can't just go off "it happened." I double checked that "Hate/Love" tweet and it seems like the post author deleted important context leading up to that statement-- they follow you too. What's up with that?

clemmie @chaoticminabean · 4h
Well, I also noticed it had been deleted too but I believe it was probably just engagement bait post about which fpe ships you like the most and he stated he only like straight ships and none of the rarepairs or gay ships. Also I got that screenshot from my trusted friend too.

The “evidence” provided further leans on the idea of D1 omitting important segments of context out of the provided images through doctoring (notice the lack of a timebar); such as the context of him willingly claiming that he wanted guest collaborator “clemmie_bun”, to quote “to pee in his mouth”, is entirely missing from these images completely.

Instance #2c

Note the screenshots below, which debunk D1’s misinformatively edited screenshots presented as truth. These first screenshots of his is his evidence but as we can see there’s something off with how Discord looks on his phone. (zoom in to analyze findings below:)

In D1’s photos, guest collaborator “clemmie_bun”’s profile picture is typically 28 pixels horizontal from the screen’s edge while the attachment button is 30, the ratio between them being 14:15. This persists until the last image, which displays a different pixel distance of 21px to 27px with a ratio of 7:9.

clemmie_bun 💗<3 6/3/25, 8:20 PM
NO
it's not appropriate at the slightest you have to realize you're talking to a minor here. And also you could literally go to jail for saying something like that i thought you knew better

No, it's not okay—even as a joke.

An 18-year-old is legally an adult, and a 15-year-old is a minor. Asking a minor to do something sexual in nature, even as a "joke," can:

- Cross legal boundaries (depending on local laws, this can be considered grooming or solicitation of a minor).
- Be emotionally damaging or coercive to the younger person.
- Raise serious ethical and power imbalance concerns due to the age and maturity gap.

You said it was stupid to hide that you knew what you were saying

I’M TIRED OF NIGGAS TRYING TO GET INTO MY FUCKING HEAD

NOT THIS TIME

Great, just great, you want to play the innocent role here and act like it was a fucking mistake of yours

Go eat shit and die

So, you telling me your sick fetish, as an adult, about either tasting pee or getting peed on is okay? And, that it can be forgiven so easily?

Those are excuses, apologies can’t fix everything

clemmie_bun 💗 <3 6/3/25, 8:34 PM

this is more than an issue. You literally fucking triggered me with your dumb and sick fucking joke. I don’t even know if i want to be friends with you anymore because saying something like that is utterly disgusting and disturbing. Disturbing to know that you’d want a 15 year old to piss on you idgaf how you were thinking a while back, that’s another excuse. (edited)

ugh but what even possessed you to say such a thing?

and don’t say you were not at you best or whatever just don't make me ever get mad at you like this again i still am only a little pissed about everything that happened but eh

Here you can see the raw crops provided by guest collaborator "clemmie_bun" to D1. The difference is that context remains in-tact with no editing, portraying clear evidence of dialogue scrubbing, implying desperation to conceal the truth. ([G.C. "clemmie_buns" notes]: To add on, the photos are in chronological order too and include more of my cussing, but I was mainly vexed at him saying inappropriate things to a minor like me and masking it to say it was a joke.)

Yes it is Here C.I.D. Director “quaeterz” expresses skepticism with D1’s screenshots, especially with the lack of a time bar (as addressed in Instance #2b). Then, after some analysis Director “quaeterz” provides counter-evidence regarding the doctored nature of the “evidence” in the upper right image, where D1 then ploys a red herring along with feigning ignorance to avoid answering. In the bottom right image, Director “quaeterz” provides contradictory evidence provided by guest collaborator “clemmie_bun”, which he simply denies outright– having the gall to even accuse her of “editing up” counter-evidence despite literally doing the same.

Thanks for lying to my virtual face, you just fucked yourself.

And, the evidence here D1 uses, is again, not true at all. I don’t recall my DMs with him looking like this and I can’t say that the formatting of it is authentic either. From the screenshots I sent above that showcase my DMs with him and his deleted messages, the formatting of his photos make no sense + are not, of course, showing the full side of the story and only the side that is to his specific likings.

As you can see, this image highlights the full extent of D1's edit to guest collaborator "clemmie_bun"'s DMs which can be seen in Instance #2c. The image explains itself well and is a comparison of sub-instance #3's qualia above. The differences in D1's image is immense compared to the latter example, like the 4 in June 4th being scalloped compared to the 4 in 8:44 PM– a gapless juxtaposition.

I was but a victim, but now I am the harasser.

Also repeating the listed fallacies, making bare assertions and self sealing arguments with erroneous or unexaminable evidence presented as decisive “fact” are not “a lot better” or “good responses” and my evidence is great and exposes your doctoring ass very well thank you very much while you have nothing but a kleenex and a can of copium to huff.

After document publication and confrontation, he tries guilt tripping to milk empathy and avoid accountability– calling the evidence presented a “poor excuse” while his “evidence” demonstrates clear evidential tampering.

Being around him honestly, he acts very homophobic. If you were around him for like a month or two, you would understand what I mean. He specifically only likes straight ships and none of the lgbtq ships at all. Here's a screenshot I have too. It's way too specific to me tbh.

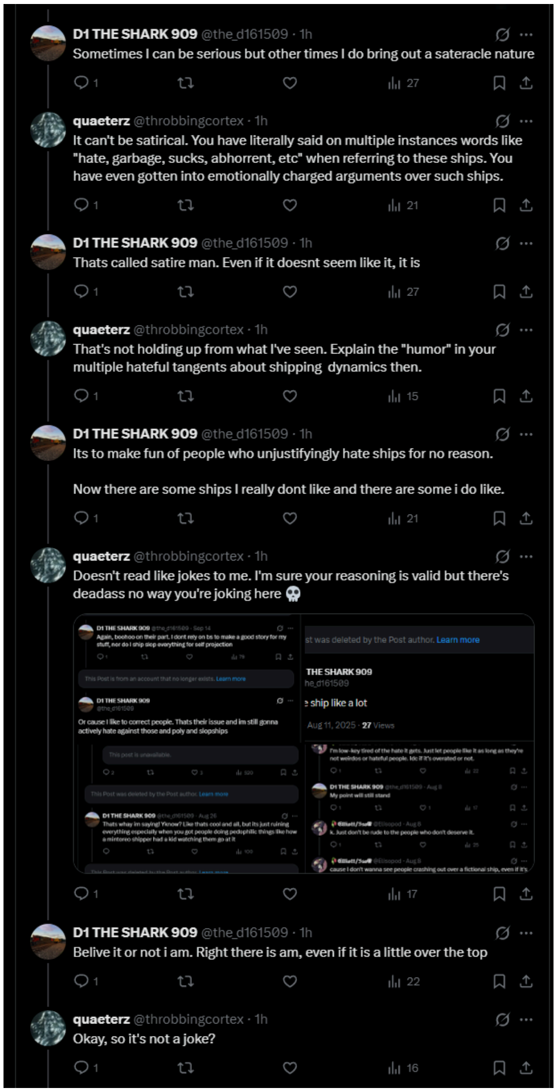
So again, me showing that I dont like the ships that are in the lgbtq range and showing what I do like.

1: I was acting satiracle for this part to joke about ship hate

2: She refuses to show the ships that I do like, that are within the lgbtq range, such as emgrace & robkev

quaeterz @throbbingcortex · 1h

Okay, so you were saying it was a joke even though there are multiple instances of you expressing very strong disliking for these ships, secondly I can't confirm anything regarding robkev but haven't you denounced emgrace?



D1 THE SHARK 909 @the_d161509 · 1h

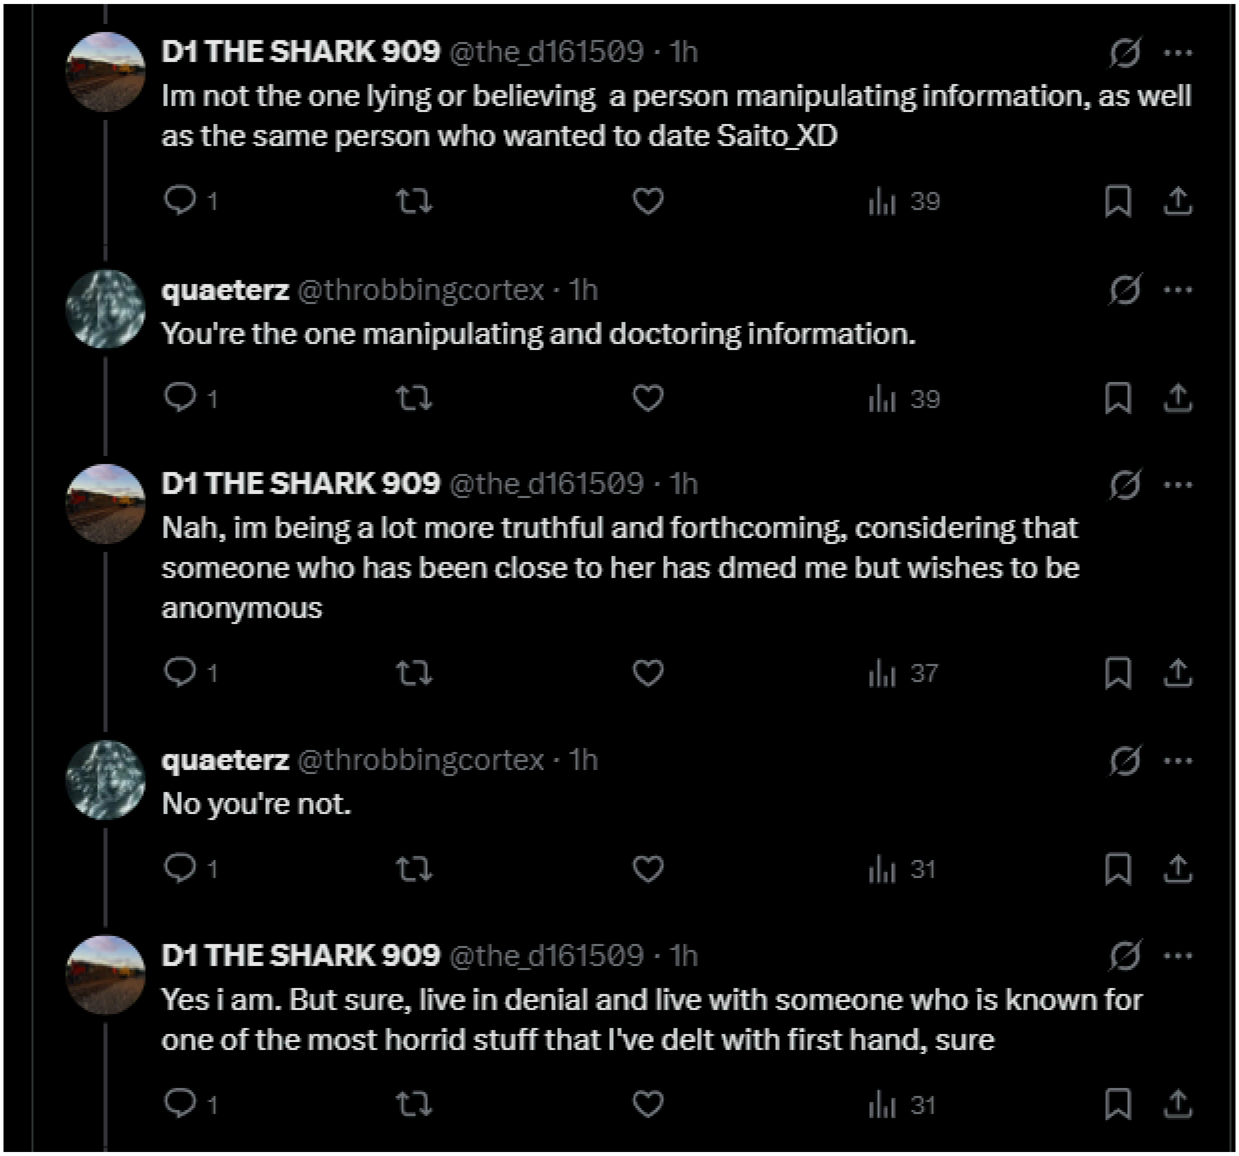
Why are you?

D1 THE SHARK 909 @the_d161509 · 12m

Im not the one lying or believing a person manipulating information, as well as the same person who wanted to date Saito XD

Beginning: D1 responds to the original exposé not by engaging the evidence in the document, but by calling it "lies" without proof and then dragging in an unrelated personal jab about "wanting to date Saito." Instead of providing counter-evidence, he diverts the focus onto a personal dig. This is a mix of bare assertion[6] ("we're spreading lies now?" with no support), ad-hominem[7] (attacking you instead of the claim), and a red herring[8] (the Saito remark is irrelevant to whether the screenshots and accusations are true).



D1 THE SHARK 909 @the_d161509 · 1h

D1 THE SHARK 909 @the_d161509 · 1h

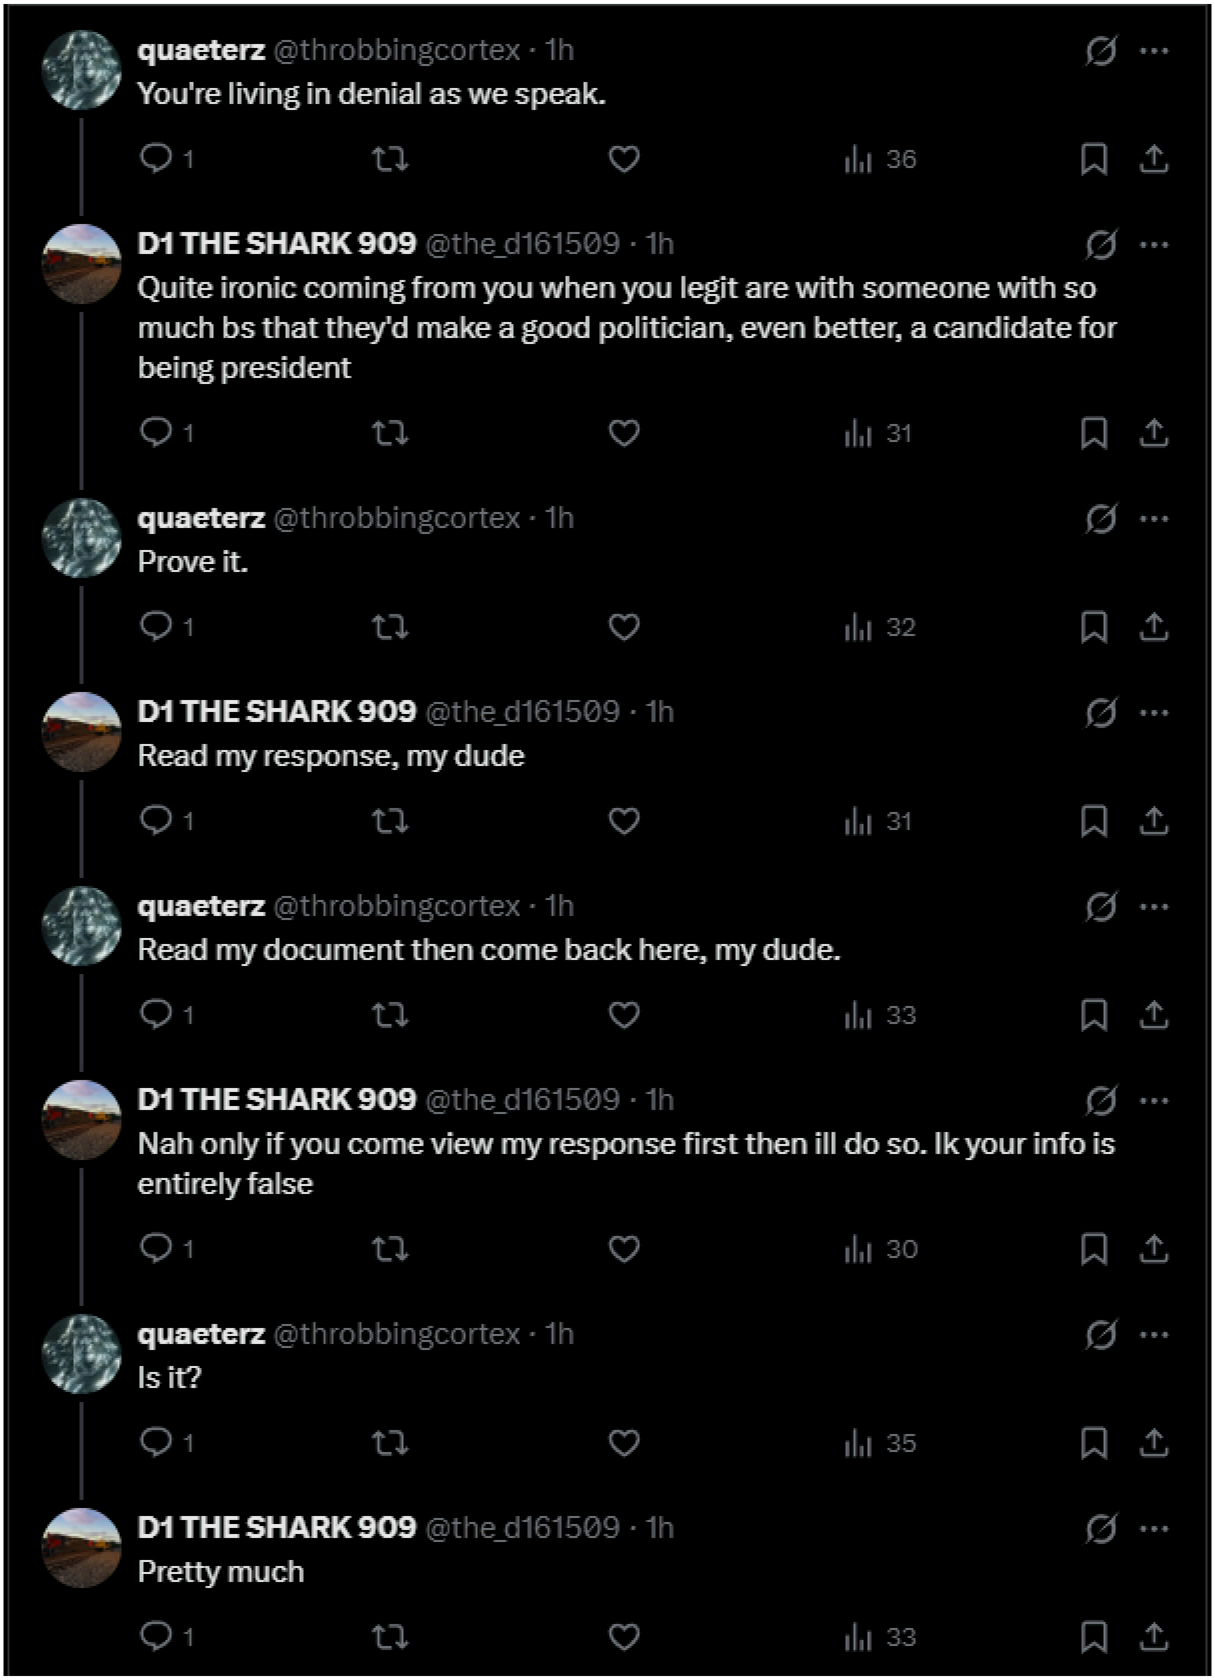
Yes i am. But sure, live in denial and live with someone who is known for one of the most horrid stuff that I've delt with first hand, sure

When you accuse D1 of manipulating and doctoring information, he does not answer the charge directly. Instead, D1 claims that “someone close to her” privately messaged him but wants to stay anonymous. This is an appeal to anonymous authority[9]: D1 tries to validate his position with a source that cannot be checked, cross-examined, or even proven to exist. By D1 saying he himself is “more truthful and forthcoming” because of this unnamed person, he also shifts the burden of proof[10] away from himself and onto “quaeterz”, implying he must somehow disprove a story he can’t see. D1 then escalates by describing guest contributor “clemmie_bun” as involved in “one of the most horrid stuff” he has dealt with, which is poisoning the well[11] and ad-hominem[7]—attacking her character instead of addressing the factual claims in the document. Overall, D1’s “I’m truthful because an anonymous person told me so” is not an argument– rather a rhetorical shield to avoid accountability.



quaeterz @throbbingcortex · 1h

You're living in denial as we speak.

D1 THE SHARK 909 @the_d161509 · 1h

quaeterz @throbbingcortex · 1h

Is it?

D1 THE SHARK 909 @the_d161509 · 1h

Pretty much

Here D1 is explicitly called out as “living in denial”, and his response is to accuse “quaeterz” of associating with someone so full of “BS” they’d make a good politician. That’s another ad-hominem[7] and guilt by association[12]. D1 attacks the person “quaeterz” knows instead of reviewing the evidence. When “quaeterz” demands D1 “prove it,” he refuses to present proof unless you read his response first, which is burden shifting[10] and a kind of conditional evasion: he makes his willingness to substantiate his accusations depend on you doing something irrelevant. Claiming “quaeterz” information is “entirely false” without presenting any counter-proof is simply bare assertion[6], and when D1’s asked “Is it?” he doubles down with “Pretty much,” which is a non-argument. This section shows D1 refusing to substantively defend his claims while posturing as if he already has.

Im not scared to admit anything. The only thing I admit to is being innocent and having you both try and ruin my reputation with bs claims

In the Thread 1 excerpt, “quaeterz” presents a specific, technical criticism: the pixel distances and layout in D1’s key screenshots differ from each other while his prior three remain consistent. D1 first shrugs this off by saying the pixel difference “looks fine” and that it’s “how it always is,” then claims he simply took screenshots of the spot “where the supposed wrongdoing happened”, which he asserts “never happened.” This mix is argument from personal incredulity[13] (“looks fine to me, so there’s no problem”) and bare denial[6] of the wrongdoing. When “quaeterz” points out that D1’s response effectively admits there is a pixel difference, he backpedal, saying “There legit isn’t a pixel difference from what I’m seeing”, contradicting the implication of his earlier wording. That internal inconsistency is a self-contradiction[14], treating the difference real enough to explain, then insists it doesn’t exist. D1 also frames “quaeterz”’s analysis as an attempt to “discredit their image and expose an empty threat,” which is a motive fallacy[15]—claiming his motives are bad instead of addressing the forensic argument about the nature of the screenshots. Throughout, D1 avoids the actual technical issue and retreats into denial and personal framing.

quaeterz @throbbingcortex · 10m
Says the guy imagining fake anonymous informants so he doesn't have to provide concrete evidence.

After the analysis imagery is shown (refer to Instances #2b and #2c)– where the last screenshot is visibly incongruous, D1 again answers with “That looks pretty fine to me” and “I know how DMs look dude, I wasn’t born this year.” This is pure appeal to personal authority[16] and argument from personal incredulity[13]–treating D1’s own subjective impression and his experience as if they override the visual discrepancies. When “quaeterz” calls out D1’s fake “Discord expert” persona and connects it to his fear of “clemmie_bun”’s DMs, D1 tries to flip it back on “quaeterz”: “Isn’t that what you’re doing though?” accusing him of acting like a know-it-all with “edited shots.” That response is projection[17] (accusing you of the very posture the arguer’s adopting) and another unsupported accusation of editing, with no evidence. Meanwhile, “quaeterz” grounds his claim in observable behavior (“element distances don’t magically change” and “hers do not—ever”), while he clings to anonymous hearsay, saying he was “told anonymously” that her screenshots came from someone else’s DMs. That is a repeated appeal to anonymous authority[9], combined with an argument from ignorance[18] (“I was told, you can’t prove I wasn’t”). When challenged, D1 keeps repeating that these anonymous people exist and that he’s protecting them from harassment, which is a rhetorical attempt to reframe his lack of evidence as moral virtue, not a real argument.

Here, "quaeterz" directly names what D1's doing: appealing to anonymous authority and denying facts. D1's reply–"I just respect people's spaces" and "I'm trying to convince them"–tries to rebrand his evidential void as ethical restraint. D1'll still happily leverage these anonymous people as justification for his claims, but will refuse to provide anything verifiable. This keeps D1 in a comfortable loop of unfalsifiable assertions: no one else can ever examine the alleged evidence, but we're expected to treat it as decisive. When "quaeterz" says they don't exist and point out he uses fallacies nonstop, D1 sidesteps again, and his pattern becomes:

- Using appeal to anonymous authority[9] to prop up his narrative.

- Using denialism[19] to dismiss every screenshot and analysis “quaeterz” provides.

- Utilizing ad-hominem[7] (“blind,” implicit insults) to undermine “quaeterz”’s credibility. This section shows him refusing to step into the arena of verifiable facts at all, keeping everything in the realm of “someone told me in private” and “you’re just blind.”

When D1’s confronted with a screenshot of his own words and behavior, he states: “I never said a lie about this” and claims “quaeterz”’s not convincing anyone because “most know” she’s a manipulator. That “most know” is another appeal to vague popularity[19]—an undefined “most people” that is never specified. “quaeterz” calls him a denialist with picture evidence, and D1 responds that the screenshot proves nothing except that “quaeterz”’s “acting stupid,” outright denying the evidential status of his own documented statements. This is denialism in its purest form: nothing you show is ever allowed to count as evidence against him. He finishes with “Legit no proof at all,” which is especially telling because the line is written in direct response to proof, revealing a psychological commitment to “heads I win, tails you lose” reasoning[21]. The fallacies here—denialism[20], ad-hominem[7], and argument from assertion[22]—demonstrate that he doesn’t have a standard under which any screenshot could ever incriminate him.

> Can someone close discord dms so the other person can never ever access them again?
>
> Short answer: No.
> Long answer (still blunt):
> Here is what you can and cannot do on Discord regarding DMs:
> 1. You CANNOT "close" a DM so the other person loses access forever.
> Discord does not let either user delete or lock the DM thread for the other side. Both people keep the chat history unless they manually delete it on their own account.
> 2. You CAN stop them from messaging you.
> Options you have:
> - Block them → They cannot message you anymore. The DM stays on both sides, but they can't send new messages.
> - Remove them as a friend → Same as above, they still have the past messages.
> 3. You CANNOT delete the DM from their account.
> Anything you sent still exists for them unless they delete it.
> 4. You CAN delete messages you sent, but this is not guaranteed to remove everything.
> - If you delete a message, it disappears from their client.
> - But if they screenshotted or used logs, it's not recoverable on your side.
> 5. You CANNOT "revoke" access to the DM channel itself.
> Discord doesn't work like that. DMs are shared spaces; neither user controls the other's access.
> TL;DR (literal):
> No, you cannot permanently close DMs for the other person. You can only block them or delete your own messages.

In thread 2, "quaeterz" drills into one very narrow technical point: why "clemmie_bun"'s screenshot keeps a consistent ratio and layout while D1's do not. D1 claims his phone "stores them weirdly" and blames a system "glitch", insisting he's showing "true DM's" and that he lacks the ability or apps to edit them, which is an argument from ignorance[18] ("I can't edit, therefore I didn't"). When "quaeterz" suggests a simple, high-signal test of screensharing–D1 first asserts confidence, "I am confident in doing so", then immediately retreats behind a new excuse: the DMs were "closed" so he "can't go into it anymore." This is self-contradictory[14] (he's "confident" about something he claims he literally cannot access) and also rests on a false technical claim about how Discord DMs and ChatGPT works[a-j]. The overall pattern is one of shifting explanations: a glitch occurred which means no editing ability and D1 being unable to access DMs, none of which directly address the ratio mismatch "quaeterz" pointed out.

Also, “quaeterz” explicitly @’s D1 to respond about Discord mechanics, and he answers with “I have a life outside of X, Thanksgiving is here, I’m with family.” That response doesn’t address Discord at all; it’s an utter red herring[8]–deflection by switching to an emotionally sympathetic topic (family time) to evade technical challenge. When “quaeterz” names it as a red herring, D1 misrepresents “quaeterz”’s point by implying he’s saying “being with family” itself is a fallacy, which is a strawman[23]: replacing “you’re using family as an excuse to dodge the argument” with “you think being with family is wrong.” “quaeterz” counters this by calling out D1’s strawman and re-anchoring the discussion back to the citation from Discord[g]. This section shows him using emotional topics and mischaracterization as defense mechanisms instead of answering the original question.

In thread 3, "quaeterz" addresses D1's disturbing allegation of him stating he wanted "clemmie_bun" to pee in his mouth. He doesn't claim to have evidence against this; instead he says it was "unproven" that he specifically said that. When "quaeterz" asks why, if it's untrue, D1 deleted all the DMs, why he edited them to look like nothing happened, and why he dragged "quaeterz" into a multi-message cover-up thread, he simply replies "I never deleted any messages,” a flat bare denial[6] that ignores the documented pattern. He then dismisses all proof in the document as “completely bs if you’re saving it from her,” which is a genetic fallacy[24]: rejecting evidence solely based on its source rather than its content, combined with poisoning the well[11] against “clemmie_bun”. When “quaeterz” calls D1 illogical and identifies his repeated use of ad-hominem[7], he sneers “Mmmm no I think I am full of logic,” which is pure self-asserted authority[16], and then derails further with the “Who is Around?” pun to dodge “quaeterz”’s “stop fucking around” instruction. That last move is straight sarcastic evasion: shifting the conversation into a joke to avoid answering why D1’s own behavior and history look like a cover-up.

Yeah no I'm blocking you.

After “quaeterz” explicitly states he’s done arguing and that he’ll just compile everything in the document, D1 continues engaging. D1 responds with German insults (“unkluger Pavian, wahnhafter Verräter”), which are clear ad-hominem attacks[7], then mocks “quaeterz” with “the victim card has been played.” When “quaeterz” repeats “stop talking to me / stop the harassment,” he responds with DARVO behavior (Deny, Attack, Reverse Victim and Offender)[25]: he insists that “quaeterz” is harassing him, that you’re “calling me every name in the book” and “making me look bad,” while he is the one continuing the interaction after you’ve withdrawn consent. D1 then accuses “quaeterz” of “villainizing” him and tries to recast himself as the true victim. This is a textbook harassment reversal built on projection, minimization, and victim-playing instead of reflection on his own behavior.

Bro again, you're refusing to prove any of your points and I've made myself quite clear. You think you're funny but yet you RP as a gta character and think you'll be some amazing VA which is like the release of GTA 6, it's not happening

I'm not funny, but what is funny is this.

Damn, grasping at my profile while doing degenerate shit like this. Talk about not amounting to anything.

Him "amounting to anything", revealing the hypocrisy of D1 and his image.

You're not slick, asshat. You keep feigning this knowledge about discord because you're too afraid to confront the fact that DM's exist of you disturbing Clemmie-- which was rather unproved mind you.

You masking it with this discord aficionado act is fucking suspicious--

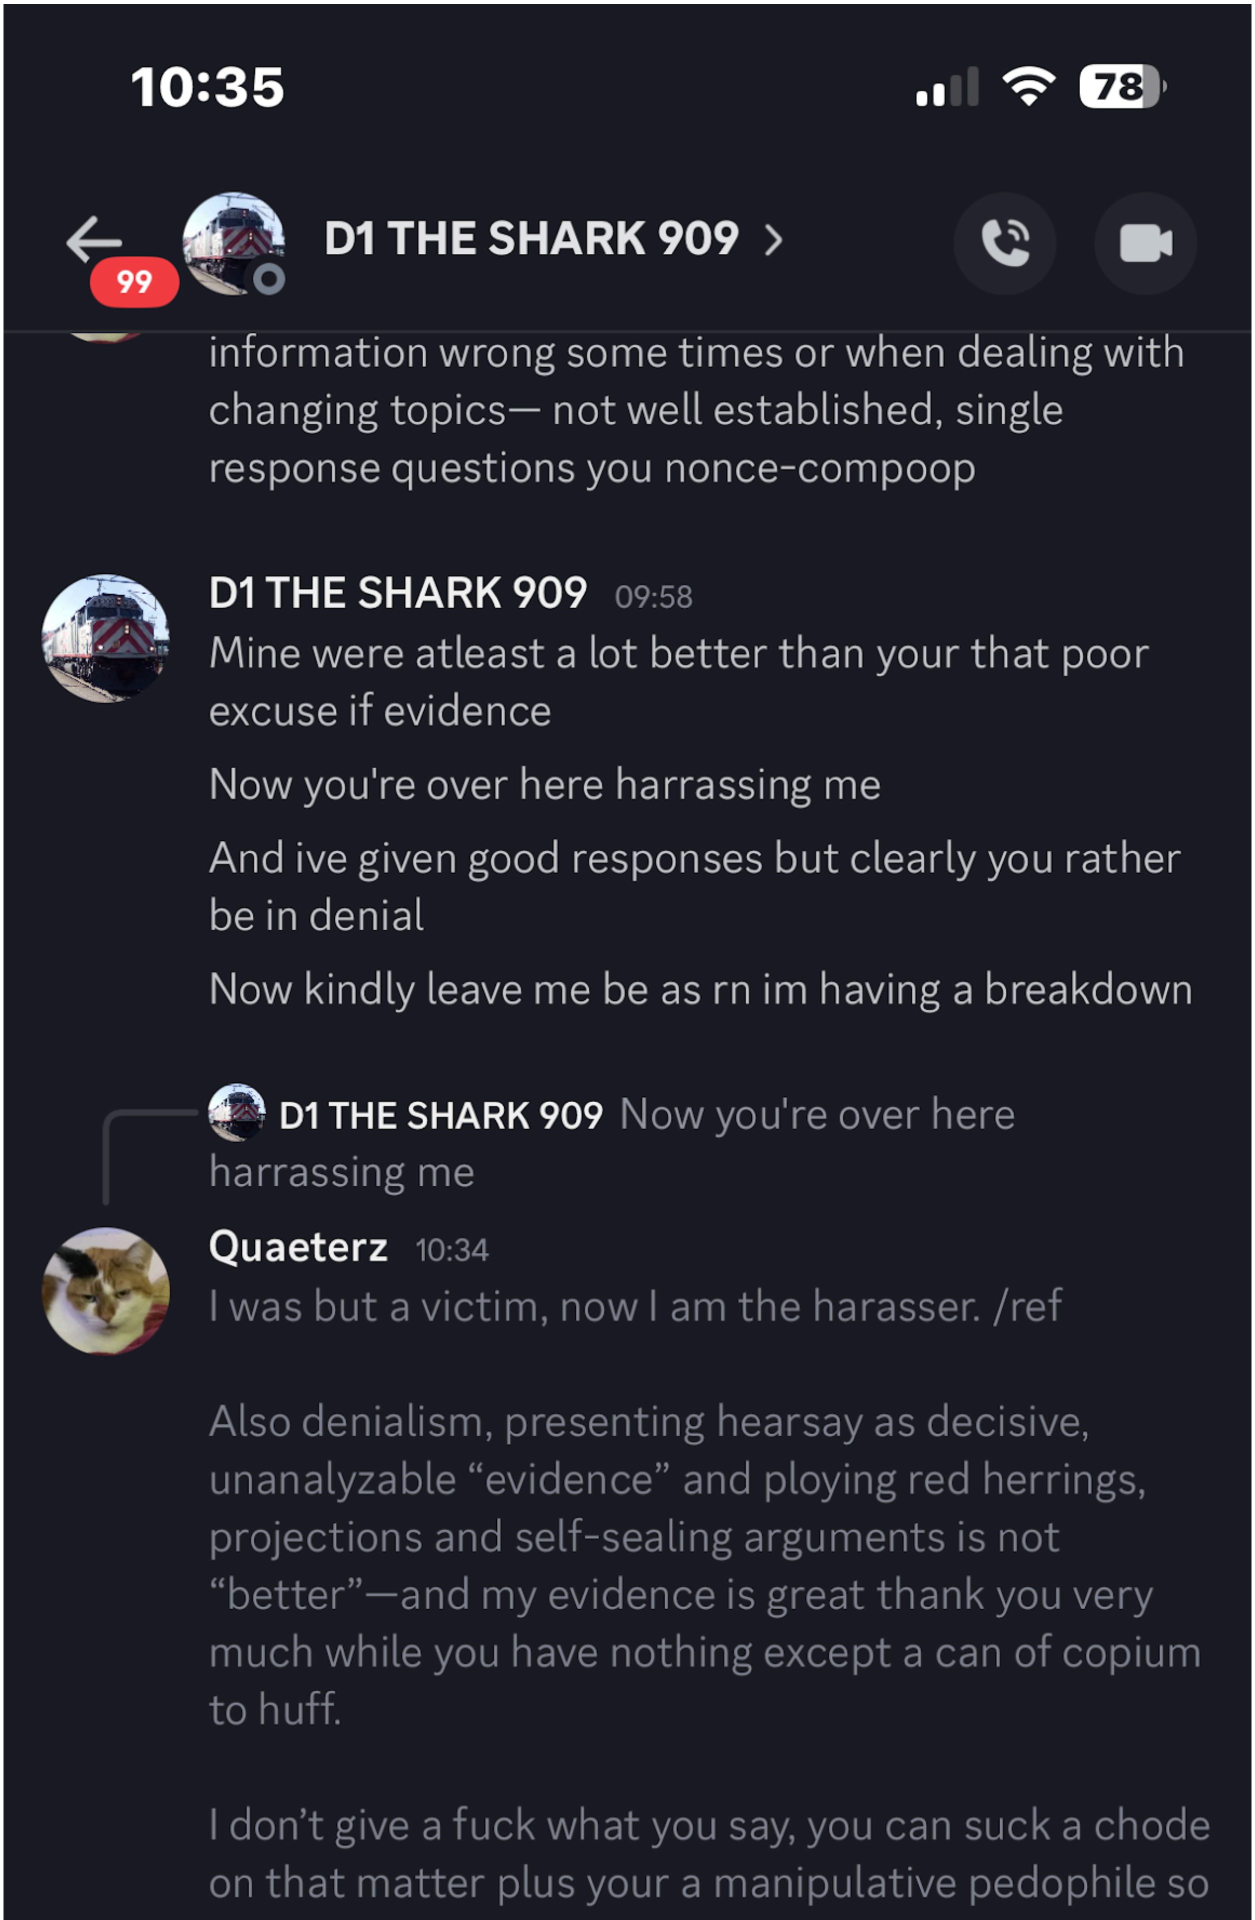
As of 12/4/2025, he has changed his username yet again with the updated description of “Leaving things in the past, im changed”



information wrong some times or when dealing with changing topics— not well established, single response questions you nonce-compoop

D1 THE SHARK 909 09:58

Mine were atleast a lot better than your that poor excuse if evidence

Now you're over here harrassing me

And ive given good responses but clearly you rather be in denial

Now kindly leave me be as rn im having a breakdown

D1 THE SHARK 909 Now you're over here harrassing me

Quaeterz 10:34

I was but a victim, now I am the harasser. /ref

Also denialism, presenting hearsay as decisive, unanalyzable “evidence” and ploying red herrings, projections and self-sealing arguments is not “better”—and my evidence is great thank you very much while you have nothing except a can of copium to huff.

I don’t give a fuck what you say, you can suck a chode on that matter plus your a manipulative pedophile so through. (edited)

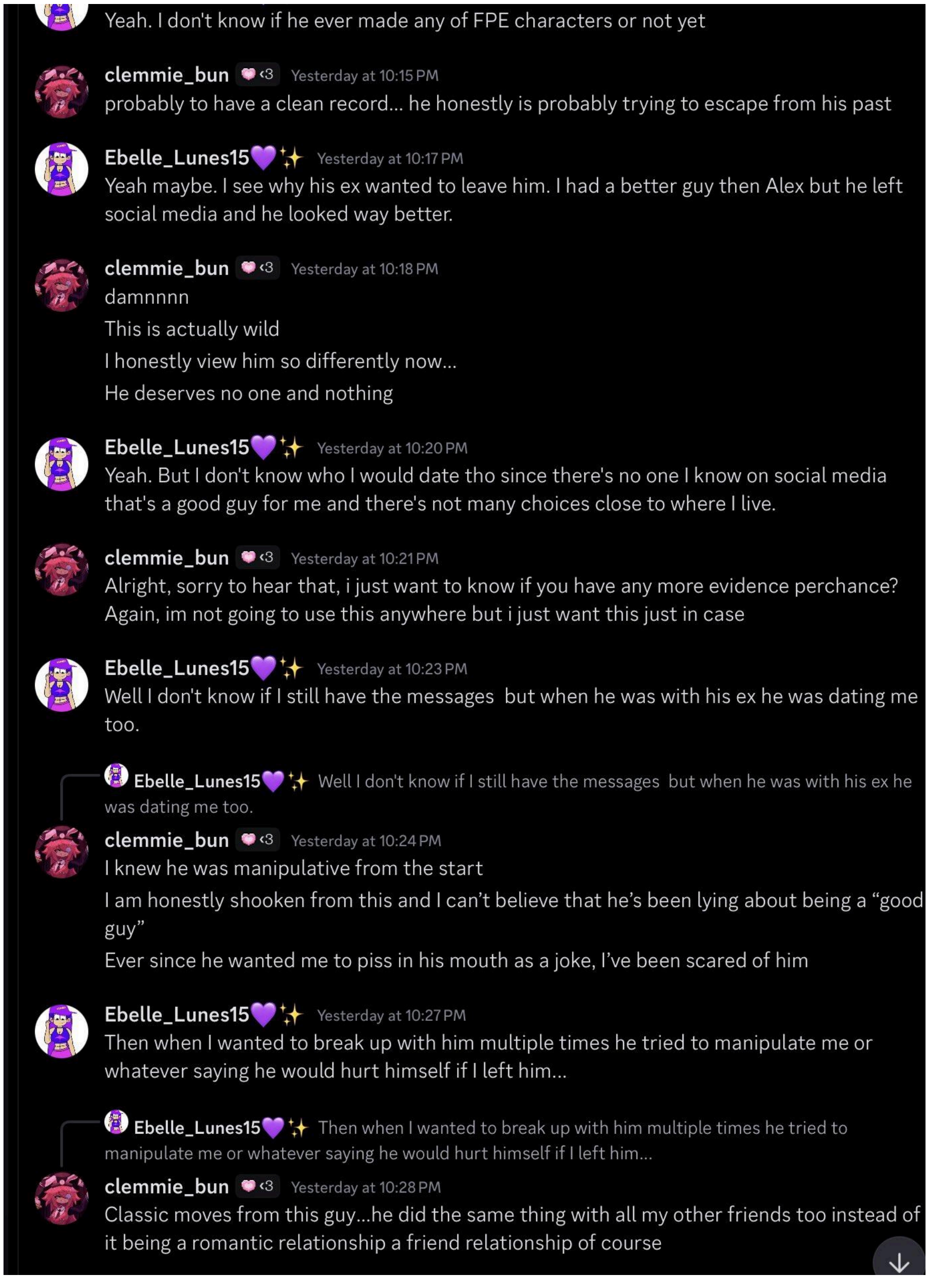
Alleged

Pre-Instance

Allegedly, we can say that D1 has emotionally manipulated his ex-girlfriend. She goes on to explain how she was desperately looking for someone to date other than who she calls “Alex”, apparently D1’s real name. Furthermore, she tries to give guest collaborator “clemmie_buns” (the evidence sourcer) useful information about her past relationship with him.

Instance #1



Yeah. I don't know if he ever made any of FPE characters or not yet

clemmie_bun 💗<3 Yesterday at 10:15 PM
probably to have a clean record... he honestly is probably trying to escape from his past

Ebelle_Lunes15💜✨ Yesterday at 10:17 PM
Yeah maybe. I see why his ex wanted to leave him. I had a better guy then Alex but he left social media and he looked way better.

damnnnn
This is actually wild
I honestly view him so differently now...
He deserves no one and nothing

Ebelle_Lunes15💜✨ Yesterday at 10:20 PM
Yeah. But I don't know who I would date tho since there's no one I know on social media that's a good guy for me and there's not many choices close to where I live.

clemmie_bun 💗<3 Yesterday at 10:21 PM
Alright, sorry to hear that, i just want to know if you have any more evidence perchance? Again, im not going to use this anywhere but i just want this just in case

Ebelle_Lunes15💜✨ Yesterday at 10:23 PM
Well I don't know if I still have the messages but when he was with his ex he was dating me too.

Ebelle_Lunes15💜✨ Well I don't know if I still have the messages but when he was with his ex he was dating me too.
clemmie_bun 💗<3 Yesterday at 10:24 PM
I knew he was manipulative from the start
I am honestly shooken from this and I can’t believe that he’s been lying about being a “good guy”
Ever since he wanted me to piss in his mouth as a joke, I’ve been scared of him

Ebelle_Lunes15💜✨ Yesterday at 10:27 PM
Then when I wanted to break up with him multiple times he tried to manipulate me or whatever saying he would hurt himself if I left him...

clemmie_bun 💗<3 Yesterday at 10:28 PM
Classic moves from this guy...he did the same thing with all my other friends too instead of it being a romantic relationship a friend relationship of course

The information she divulges is very overt though not too descriptive, which shall be broken down for reader convenience. D1 would threaten to harm and kill himself to manipulate her feelings as a form of gaslighting (refer to Instance #3 for an example), getting pitifully sad about it at the same time if Ebelle considered leaving him, making her feel as if she was in a chokehold. But another shocker is that apparently while he was "dating" her at the time, he was allegedly dating another ex of his simultaneously. This displays D1's disloyalty and where his manipulativeness comes into play here.

Conclusion

In conclusion, D1 is considered a medium-high risk, capable of photo-manipulation and evidence-scrubbing whenever it serves his image, POTENTIALLY engaging in predatory behavior behind closed doors. It is advised to not engage unless absolutely necessary– whatever reason that may be. If any further victims of his harassment or alleged behaviors would like to come out and speak about their experiences with him, please do refer to P.P. Leader M.C. Oliver, C.I.D. Director "quaeterz", and/or especially guest_collaborator "clemmie_bun".
